Dr. Scott McCormick

Langley Orchestra Director

Dr. Scott McCormick (a.k.a. “Doc” to his students) received his D.M.A. from Indiana University Bloomington in Music Performance and Literature (Viola). He is in his 21st year of teaching at Langley High School and is honored to have received Langley’s Outstanding Teacher of the Year Award in 2018.

Doc also directs the Chamber orchestra and teaches Applied Strings and Pedagogy at Patrick Henry College. He is also a core member of the Washington Bach Consort, the area’s premiere Baroque orchestra and chorus.

Doc lives on a small acreage in Loudoun County with his wife, Rebekah, and their children (affectionately known as his Doclings), Norah and Hugh. The property is also home to a chocolate lab, a Siamese cat, a family of hummingbirds, and an award-winning flock of 16 heritage breed chickens, including an Ancona hen named Belladonna who won Best in Show in the Poultry Division at the 2021 Loudoun County Fair.

Thank you!

Special thanks to our Theatre Director Brian Kaufman and lead tech and senior violinist Teddy Spaner for creating amazing visual effects.

Special thanks to the talented students who create artwork for the programs, posters, flyers, and website. Check it out at www.langleyorchestra.org/artist-alley. For this program, thanks to Victoria Wang (cover), Vanessa Boswell (back cover), Sesshu Yamazaki (planet background), and Ulaina Ahn (clip art).

Thanks Doc and all of the orchestra and guest musicians for making truly out of this world music.

CARNEGIE HALL

MARCH 10, 2023

Start Spreading the News!!

Orchestra trips are back! Langley Orchestra has been invited to perform at the world-famous Carnegie Hall in New York City on March 10, 2023, and we're all invited to go hear them!

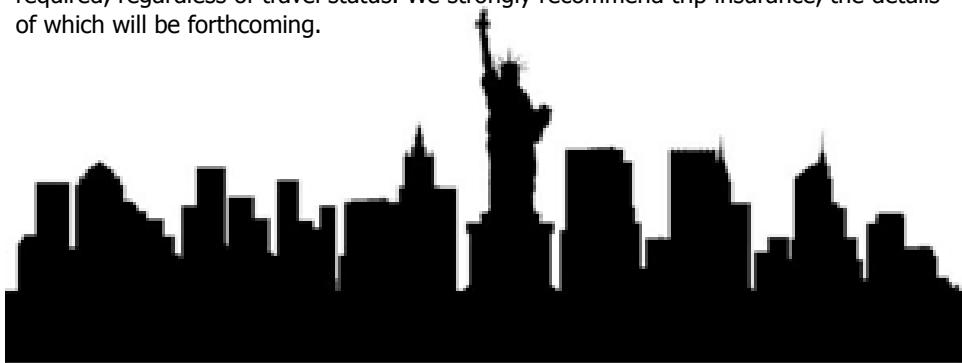

Traveling Orchestra students will have a fun-filled four-day trip to the Big Apple, visiting museums, exploring Times Square, catching a Broadway show, and experiencing a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to play in one of the world's most prestigious performance venues, Carnegie Hall*. And because we refuse to forget our student musicians who couldn't travel due to COVID, Carnegie Hall has agreed to allow recent Langley Orchestra graduates to perform with next year's orchestra. Families are encouraged to travel separately to NYC for the performance and, if there is enough interest, we may be able to make group hotel and sightseeing arrangements.

Interested performers or their parents may email Karen DeFilipps, the Langley Orchestra Society Trip Chairperson, at langleyorchestratrip@gmail.com. At this time, we can only guarantee space for the first 100 performers. Payment will be required in increments between September and December, 2022.**

The Fine Print

*Tour activities and schedule are subject to change. We are still in the planning stages.

**Due to the nature of this trip, no refunds can be allowed and full payment will be required, regardless of travel status. We strongly recommend trip insurance, the details of which will be forthcoming.

Langley Orchestra Society

The Langley Orchestra Society (LOS) support the orchestra students by providing supplies including sheet music, performance rights, and enrichment activities such as sectional instruction. LOS funds also are used to purchase and repair instruments, and provide professional accompanists, programs and professional recordings for concerts.

If you would like to be a part of the volunteer team next year, please email langleyorchestra@gmail.com

Thank you to LOS Supporters! And outgoing LOS Board of Directors members:

As the school year comes to a close, I would like to place a spotlight on a few exceptional contributors to our orchestra program. You could say they have been “instrumental” to our success. (Couldn’t help myself...) ~ Doc

Jenny Werner, President, was brave enough to step forward and accept the position of LOS president at a time of great uncertainty. Her unwavering optimism and vision for community helped fill a void as our orchestra emerged from the isolation of the COVID pandemic. She was the driving force behind a number of team-building activities (such as Field of Fear, bonfire, ice-skating, National Observatory) – events that greatly helped our students connect with one another once again. I am hopeful that her legacy will continue along with these new orchestra traditions.

Amy Prewett, Newsletter and Hospitality, has served in not one but two important roles in her time with the LOS. As communications officer, she connected all our orchestra families through her thoughtful and attractive e-Newsletters, which she constantly updated with current information regarding our events and activities. As if this weren’t enough she also served as the Hospitality chair, coordinating the meals and receptions that turned our concerts into celebrations. She has been the “glue” that held our orchestra together, even through tumultuous times.

Lucia Sugianto has served as the Spirit Wear coordinator for multiple years. She has placed countless orders and helped us to build our brand so that orchestra students could display their unique identity with pride and style. As a proud parent of two orchestra members and a veteran of several trips, her experience will be sorely missed by our students and their families.
