Dr. Scott McCormick

Langley Orchestra Director

Dr. Scott McCormick (a.k.a. “Doc” to his students) received his D.M.A. from Indiana University Bloomington in Music Performance and Literature (Viola). He is in his 22nd year of teaching at Langley High School and is honored to have received Langley’s Outstanding Teacher of the Year Award in 2018. He is also an Adjunct Professor at Patrick Henry College in Purcellville where he directs the Chamber orchestra, Harp Ensemble and teaches Applied Strings. He is also a core member of the Washington Bach Consort, the area’s premiere Baroque orchestra and chorus.

Doc lives on a small rural property in Western Loudoun County with his wife, Rebekah, and their children, Norah and Hugh, (affectionately known as the Doclings). Other residents of Doc’s homestead include a Chocolate Lab, a Siamese cat, a family of hummingbirds, and an award-winning flock of heritage breed chickens. His hens have won the Grand Champion prize at the Loudoun County Fair Poultry Show for the past two years: the most recent winner, a Wheaten Maran pullet named Lupine, performs a variety of tricks -- including playing the xylophone.

Thank you Langley Orchestra Families and Friends for your generous support!

The 2022-23 voluntary (tax-deductible) contributions to the Langley Orchestra Society (LOS) support the orchestra students by providing supplies including sheet music, performance rights, and enrichment activities such as sectional instruction. LOS funds will also be used to purchase and repair instruments, provide professional accompanists, and concert programs and professional recordings.

Visit: www.langleyorchestra.org and go to “Support: Langley Orchestra Society” for more information on how you can donate*, or get involved — volunteering your time and energy is a great way to help keep the orchestra community close-knit and vibrant. *Instrument donations also appreciated

Special Thanks to
The O'Neill James School of Irish Dance

Founded in the fall of 1969, the O'Neill James School is the longest established Irish dancing school in the Washington, DC metropolitan area and cherishes its reputation for excellence. Its dancers have performed at the White House, the Capitol, the Kennedy Center, on several TV shows, and at many celebrity events in the area. In 1987, the school established the now world-famous All-American Championships & Nation's Capital Feis (festival/competition, pronounced fesh) with over 1000 participants from across the United States, Canada and abroad. The school's dancers were voted "Most Enthusiastic" in the 2017 Washington, DC Parade and won the Presidents Cup at the 30th All American Championships & Nation's Capital Feis. The Director, Lauren O'Neill James, is a distinguished Irish Dancer with hundreds of awards to her credit. She was inducted into the Irish Cultural Hall of Fame in 2004 and was proud to serve as a Division Marshal in the 2011 Washington, DC St Patrick's Day Parade and as the Grand Marshall of the 2015 St Patrick's Day Parade in Alexandria, Virginia.

Thank you to Brian Kaufman, LHS Drama Director, and the talented tech team from Saxon Stage for building the stage platform for the dancers and running the sound and light board for the show.
