Dr. Scott McCormick

Langley Orchestra Director

Dr. Scott McCormick (a.k.a “Doc” to his students) received his D.M.A. from Indiana University Bloomington in Music Performance and Literature (Viola). He is in his 24th year of teaching at Langley High School and is honored to have received Langley’s Outstanding Teacher of the Year Award in 2018.

He is also an Adjunct Professor at Patrick Henry College in Purcellville where he directs the Chamber orchestra, Harp Ensemble and teaches Applied Strings. He is also a core member of the Washington Bach Consort, the area’s premiere Baroque orchestra and chorus.

Doc lives on a small rural property in Western Loudoun County with his wife, Rebekah, and their children, Norah and Hugh, (affectionately known as the Doclings). Other residents of Doc’s homestead include a Siamese cat, a family of hummingbirds, and an award-winning flock of 24 heritage breed chickens. His hens have won the Grand Champion prize at the Loudoun County Fair Poultry Show for the past two years: the most recent winner, a Wheaten Maran pullet named Lupine, performs a variety of tricks -- including playing the xylophone.

Thank you, Langley Orchestra Families and Friends for your generous support!

The 2024-25 voluntary (tax-deductible) contributions to the Langley Orchestra Society (LOS) support the orchestra students by providing supplies including sheet music, performance rights, and enrichment activities such as sectional instruction. LOS funds will also be used to purchase and repair instruments, provide professional accompanists, and concert programs and professional recordings.

Visit: www.langleyorchestra.org and go to “Support: Langley Orchestra Society” for more info on how you can donate, or get involved — volunteering your time and energy is a great way to help keep the orchestra community close-knit and vibrant. Instrument donations also appreciated.

District XII Orchestra Assessments

Each year, the Virginia Band & Orchestra Directors Association (VBODA) organizes assessment opportunities for all of the instrumental music programs in the state. A panel of professional adjudicators is assembled for each of the 16 districts to evaluate participating ensembles and assign scores according to state standards of excellence. The factors considered include: tone production, technique, balance, intonation, ensemble, musicianship, sight-reading, and professionalism. Our district (No. 12) is known to be one of the largest and most advanced demonstrations of secondary orchestral music in the entire nation.

All students in the Langley Philharmonic and Symphonic orchestras (Junior & Senior sections) are required to attend (and arrange their own transportation) to this competition to represent our school. Parents, family, and friends are strongly encouraged to come cheer them on – it can make a big difference to the judges when the groups reflect the energy of their supporters.
