LANGLEY HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

Dr. Scott McCormick

Langley Orchestra Director

Dr. Scott McCormick (a.k.a “Doc” to his students) received his D.M.A. from Indiana University Bloomington in Music Performance and Literature (Viola). He is in his 25th year of teaching at Langley High School and is honored to have received Langley’s Outstanding Teacher of the Year Award and Region 1 Outstanding Secondary Teacher Award in 2025.

He is also an Adjunct Professor at Patrick Henry College in Purcellville where he directs the Chamber orchestra, Harp Ensemble and teaches Applied Strings. He is also a core member of the Washington Bach Consort, the area’s premiere Baroque orchestra and chorus.

Doc lives on a small rural property in Western Loudoun County with his wife, Rebekah, and their children, Norah and Hugh, (affectionately known as the Doclings). Other residents of Doc’s homestead include a Siamese cat and a family of hummingbirds. They also have an award-winning flock of heritage breed chickens, two of which have won the Grand Champion prize at the Loudoun County Fair Poultry Show. The most memorable winner, a Wheaten Maran hen named Lupine, performs a variety of tricks -- including playing the xylophone.

Thank you, Langley Orchestra Families and Friends for your generous support!

The 2025-26 voluntary (tax-deductible) contributions to the Langley Orchestra Society (LOS) support the orchestra students by providing supplies including sheet music, performance rights, and enrichment activities such as sectional instruction. LOS funds will also be used to purchase and repair instruments, provide professional accompanists, and concert programs and professional recordings.

Visit: www.langleyorchestra.org and go to “Support: Langley Orchestra Society” for more info on how you can donate, or get involved — volunteering your time and energy is a great way to help keep the orchestra community close-knit and vibrant. Instrument donations also appreciated. Donations are tax-deductible.
